Your Credit Union is Going Green

January 1, 2011

Jeffco Federal CU is GOING GREEN. The credit union will no longer automatically be sending out statements or newsletters. All statements will be E-statements, unless you have notified the credit union that you would like a paper statement sent to you in the mail. Newsletters will be available on-line to view at any time, (jeffcofcu.org).

If you are not set up for on-line banking, call the credit union and we will get you set up to view your statements and newsletters online. We do understand that some of our members do not have access to a computer, or on-line services. If you are one of those members just give us a call and we will be glad to print a statement for you.

GOING GREEN!

Come And Celebrate Credit Union Day

October 21, 2010

The credit union is celebrating Credit Union Day October 21, 2010. With the turmoil of the past year in the banking industry it is a time to celebrate; your credit union has weathered the storm and is in great financial health. Remember you are the owner's of the credit union. There are no shareholders that have their hands out for huge dividends or bonuses.

We will be serving refreshments, along with some free gifts. So stop by and enjoy the celebration.

In Memory

The credit union is sad to report that we lost one of our Board of Directors. Mary Memmer passed away August 19, 2010. Mary served on the Board of Directors for the credit union for the past 21 years. Mary was loved and respected by her fellow Board Members, along with the staff of the credit union. When Mary started on the credit union Board of Directors the asset size of the credit union was 3 million, today the credit union asset size is over 16 million in assets. Mary was a true leader and a valued member of the credit union Board. We will all miss, her along with her true dedication that will never be forgotten.

If you are planning on purchasing over the weekend you must call us on Friday to get your account flagged.
